Leadership Plus Application Form Application Due Date: January 4, 2008

First Alaskans Institute (FAI) and the Alaska Native Professional Association (ANPA) are pleased to announce their collaborative Leadership Plus pilot series. In response to recognized need, FAI and ANPA have partnered to provide 30 entry-to-mid-level Alaska Native professionals with networking opportunities and educational seminars. These seminars are designed to increase understanding of Alaska Native history and tradition and to raise awareness of current and emerging issues. The curriculum will be presented in half-day sessions that will be delivered between January 2008 and April 2008.

Along with preparation, this initiative will also coach and teach participants how to take part in boards and commissions, conduct service projects, network with leaders, and engage in the decision-making process for issues affecting Alaska Natives.

The Leadership Plus seminars will include content such as: career skills, Alaska Native history and Alaska state history, subsistence, wellness, Alaska Native Culture/ Art/ Tradition, public speaking and debate, education and research, leadership and governance, conflict resolution/ problem solving, and community service. Presenters will have a high level of knowledge and expertise in the content topics discussed. Leadership Plus seminars will be held on the 3rd Friday of each month from 1:00 pm – 5:00 pm at the CITC building immediately following ANPA’s Monthly Gathering (11:45 am – 1:00 pm).

*Please contact ANPA directly at info@anpa.net to RSVP for ANPA gathering or visit www.anpa.net for more information.
