SUBSISTENCE RESOURCES

ding any provision of Federal e Natives of Alaska shall have ther fuel and pick berries or subsistence purposes on lands o which any Native village or tle pursuant to sections 10-12, and also on public lands of the s selected by the State under 1958 (72 Stat. 339), for a

1 period of one hundred years after the effective date of this 2 Act, subject in the case of public lands to such reasonable re-3 strictions as the Secretary or the head of the State or Fed-4 eral agency having jurisdiction over such lands may impose: 5 Provided, That such subsistence right shall terminate with 6 respect to land patented to third parties on the date of the 7 patent or twenty-five years after the effective date of this 8 Act, whichever later occurs.

9 (b) For a period of twenty-five years after the effective 10 date of this Act, the Secretary, upon petition by any indi-11 vidual residing in Alaska or by the Department of Fish and 12 Game of the State of Alaska, shall, after a public hearing, 13 and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, 14 determine whether or not an emergency exists with respect 15 to the depletion of subsistence biotic resources in any given 16 area of the State and may thereupon delimit and declare 17 that such area will be closed to entry for hunting, fishing, or 18 trapping, except by residents of such area, subject to the pro-19 visions of any treaty concerning such resources. The closing 20 authorized by this section shall not be for a period of more 21 than five years, but may be extended by the Secretary after 22 hearing, and a published finding that the emergency con-23 tinues to exist. Any person knowingly hunting, fishing, or 24 trapping in such area, except a resident thereof, may, upon 25 conviction, be required to forfeit any gear, vehicle, boat or
