

LANGUAGE DOCUMENTATION AND VIDEOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

November 9-11, 2009, 9AM-5PM

Bill Ray Center Room 110, Juneau, AK

No Registration Fee

Space is limited to 20 participants

Who should attend:

Those working in Native language documentation

Presenter-Frederick Otilius Olsen

Frederick Otilius Olsen, Jr., has lived and worked in New York City since 1994, working in the television industry as a camera operator and director of photography. He has also taught digital cinematography at the School of Visual Arts in Manhattan. Frederick was born in Ketchikan and graduated from JDHS. He is a Sealaska shareholder. His short documentary Surviving Sounds of Haida won the 2008 Indie Short Film Competition for "Best Documentary".

The three-day workshop will cover camera operation and lighting concepts, interview setups, and audio troubleshooting. Each participant is encouraged to bring their own equipment—camera, microphones, tripod, camera manual, etc.

Schedule

Day 1: Cameras and Photography Skills -Composition and Audio

Day 2: Critique of Student homework - Advanced documenting skills

Day 3: Critique of second homework, review of concepts and action planning for future work.

For More Information:

Contact: Linda Belarde
linda.belarde@sealaska.com

Sponsored By:

Sealaska Heritage Institute

