

Sealaska Heritage and the UAS PITAAS program present

ED LITTLEFIELD

NATIVE JAZZ

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

UAS | Lecture Hall (Egan room 112)

LECTURE | 12PM

Tlingit Music – Past, Present and Future

How traditional knowledge was shared in the past and how we can incorporate those styles of learning into our everyday lives.

JAZZ PERFORMANCE | 7PM

Ed Littlefield with Christian Fabian and Reuel Lubag.

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

Sealaska Heritage | Walter Soboleff Building

JAZZ PERFORMANCE | 6PM

Ed Littlefield with Christian Fabian and Reuel Lubag.

ALL EVENTS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

PHOTOS COURTESY OF ED LITTLEFIELD

ED LITTLEFIELD is a Tlingit percussionist, educator, and composer based out of Seattle. He has released two albums featuring his traditional Native melodies with his group the Native Jazz Quartet. His theater credits include original music for Our Voices Will Be Heard and They Don't Talk Back.

For more information contact Mary Richey Sell at mary.richey@sealaska.com or 907-586-9257.