Family Orientation

Set-up – Stations should be set up well before the event. Make sure you have all the supplies you will use.

Arrival – (10 min) As families arrive, hand out agendas, help put coats and gear away.

Welcome! – (5 min) Drum everyone into the event space. Give a brief introduction to the event and what Baby Raven Reads (BRR) is about. Introduce yourself and your team, give a brief overview of what will take place. Then move into story time.

Story Time – (5-10 min) Read the book Am'ala, or have your Cultural Specialist do this.

Stations – (30 min)

1. Dramatic Play
 - a. Puppets and stick figures for re-enacting story
2. Make a Face
 - a. Children can draw self-portraits using the mirror provided.
 - b. Provide drawing materials. Activity directions should be posted on the table.
3. A is for Am'ala
 - a. Paper will be provided for children and parents to trace hand prints to cut out. Each handprint will go onto the world. Directions provided.
4. Parent Paperwork
 - a. Parents must sign-in for each event, enroll if they haven't already done so, sign a medical release and emergency contact form.

Cleanup – (10 min) Everyone helps! Sing a clean-up song.

Departure – (5 min) Gather for goodbye song, sing as families get ready to go, drum them out the door.
