Baby Raven Reads Lesson Plan

Am’ala Orientation

Activity
- Have children look at their faces and draw a picture of themselves. Talk about the parts of a face.
- Use the paper circles for kids to draw different emotions.

Make a Face
- 2–5 years

Dramatic Play
- All ages

A is for Am’ala
- All ages

Materials
- Paper
- Pencils
- Mirrors
- Place to draw
- Animal puppets
- Stick figure of Am’ala
- Prop to represent the world
- Green fabric for grass
- Glue sticks
- Paper for handprints
- Scissors
- Writing utensils
- iPad
- Photo release
- Medical release
- Attendance sheet

Cultural and Developmental Learning

Haa Latseen
- 5. Reflect through their own actions the critical role that the local heritage language plays in fostering a sense of who they are and how they understand the world around them*
- TSG SE 1. Regulates own emotion and behaviors a. Manages feelings
- A. 3. acquire and pass on the traditions of their community through oral and written history*
- E. 8. Identify and appreciate who they are and their place in the world*

---

*Source: Alaska State Cultural Standard for Students

01/2018

www.sealaskaheritage.org