

Post by David R. Boxley,
photo by Nobu Koch.

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

at the Walter Soboleff Building

THURSDAY, NOV. 1

LECTURE: Oral Accounts of the Tlingit Kaagwaantaan Origin and Migration presented by David Kanosh, Shdeen Hít, Deisheetaan clan, with Nels Lawson, Keet Hít in Klukwan and clan leader of the Sitka Kaagwaantaan. Noon.

TUESDAY, NOV. 6

LECTURE: LAWÁAK (Klawock): The First Cannery in Alaska and the Path Not Taken presented by Steve J. Langdon, Ph.D., professor emeritus at the University of Alaska Anchorage, Department of Anthropology. Noon.

THURSDAY, NOV. 8

LECTURE: Paleogenomics, Community Engagement and Evolutionary Histories of Indigenous Peoples of Northwest North America presented by Ripan S. Malhi, Ph.D., Richard and Margaret Romano Professor at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Noon.

FRIDAY, NOV. 9

LECTURE: Re-Awakening Ancient Salish Sea Basketry, Fifty Years of Basketry Studies in Culture and Science presented by Suquamish master basket-maker Ed Carriere and Dale Croes, Ph.D., adjunct professor at Washington State University, Department of Anthropology. Noon.

FRIDAY, NOV. 9

VETERANS DAY OBSERVED: SHI will highlight Tlingit code talkers Mark Jacobs, Jr., Harvey Jacobs, George Lewis, Jr., Robert "Jeff" David, Sr., and Richard Bean, Sr.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 14

WALTER SOBOLEFF DAY: SHI will host a lunch-hour viewing of items from its collections relating to Dr. Soboleff and his legacy. Noon.

TUESDAY, NOV. 20

LECTURE: The Names We Carry presented by Ernestine Saankaláxt Hayes, professor of English, arts, and sciences at the University of Alaska Southeast and Alaska Writer Laureate. She is Tlingit of the Gooch Hít of the Kaagwaantaan clan. Noon.

TUESDAY, NOV. 27

LECTURE: Gwál Yisikóo Yá Yéil: Maybe You Know This Raven presented by X'únei Lance Twitchell, associate professor of Alaska Native languages at the University of Alaska Southeast. Twitchell is from the Tlingit, Haida, and Yup'ik Native nations. Noon.

THURSDAY, NOV. 29

LECTURE: Highlights from a Video Archive of Yakutat Indigenous Knowledge presented by Aron Crowell, Ph.D., Arctic/Subarctic archaeologist and anthropologist, and Judith Ramos, assistant professor of Alaska Native Studies and Rural Development at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. Ramos is Tlingit Raven of Yakutat, Kwáashk'ikwáan/Gineixkwáan clan. Noon.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY, NOV. 29-30

ANY GIVEN CHILD ARTS EXCURSION: All second-grade students in the Juneau School District will visit the building as part of a national program.

With the exception of the Any Given Child Arts Excursion, all events begin at noon at the Walter Soboleff Building and are free and open to the public.