

Make a Face!

Talk to your child about what a face looks like when happy (smile), or mad (frown). After drawing these faces, they can use them in dramatic play to represent feelings.

Supplies:

- Circles (pre-cut)
- Crayons
- Popsicle sticks
- Glue

Using 1 circle per feeling, have your child draw a happy face, sad face, angry face, and scared face.

Add these Lingít words to the matching face:

Happy – sagú

Sad – toowú néekw

Angry – x'áan

Scared – akoolxeitl'
