

OUR CULTURAL LANDSCAPE

Culturally Responsive
Education Conference
August 5-7, 2021
Virtual Conference

Registration for Our Cultural Landscape is now open!

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Now in its fourth year, this Sealaska Heritage event provides educators and administrators with a deep understanding of culturally responsive education and equips them to transform their classrooms, pedagogy, and curriculum to fully support all students' success—especially those who have been historically underserved, disenfranchised, and marginalized by colonized systems. This year's theme is Calling on our grandparents' knowledge for future generations—Native ways of knowing, learning, and being.

HOW TO REGISTER

There is no registration fee for Southeast Alaska attendees. Educators, administrators, university faculty, and community members are all welcome and encouraged to attend. Register online here: conference.sealaskaheritage.org/register/

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Tiffany S. Lee, PhD (Diné/Oglala Lakota), professor and chair of Native American Studies at the University of New Mexico

Nikki Sanchez (Pipil/Maya), doctoral fellow at the Center for Religion and Society at the University of Victoria

Ethan Petticrew (Unangax), retired educator and current executive director for Cook Inlet Native Head Start

Candace Galla, PhD, associate professor at the University of British Columbia Vancouver

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

The conference will also feature more than 25 breakout sessions on a wide range of topics including:

- Unpacking Equity in Juneau Schools: Critical Participatory Action Research Project
- Re-thinking Readiness: How Schools can Support Native Students in College Readiness

For a full list, visit conference.sealaskaheritage.org

the
THRU CULTURAL LENS

A Sealaska Heritage cultural connectedness project for educators