LECTURE SERIES

Approaches to Indigenous Language Revitalization

Sealaska Heritage will offer a series focused on Indigenous language revitalization efforts, presented by scholars and professionals working in the field. All lectures will be videotaped and posted on SHI's YouTube channel. Presenters will also be interviewed for a podcast, which will be posted after the lectures.

All lectures begin at 5pm in the clan house at the Walter Soboleff Building and are free to educational and language professionals and language students.
