

OUR CULTURAL LANDSCAPE

Culturally Responsive
Education Mini-Conference

Making Literacy Practices Visible

February 26, 2022

CALL for PRESENTERS

ACCEPTING PROPOSALS for BREAKOUT SESSIONS

This conference is focused on making culturally responsive literacy instructional practices visible.

Early childhood, K-12, university, and community educators are highly encouraged to submit proposals for an hour-long breakout session related to instructional practices that support students' engagement and proficiencies related to reading, writing, talking, and listening.

Proposals should be for presentations that engage a virtual audience.
Presenter benefits include an honorarium.

Submit proposals by Monday, January 17, 2022.

bit.ly/LiteracyConference2022-Proposal

the CULTURAL LENS

Contact: Lisa Richardson at Lrichardson3@alaska.edu

conference.sealaskaheritage.org

A Sealaska Heritage cultural connectedness project for educators