

LECTURE SERIES:

Exploring the origins and earliest presence of Indigenous people in Southeast Alaska

Photo from the William L. Paul, Sr. Archives

JANUARY 12

Ice Age Migration and Settlement in Southeast Alaska: Human Response to Climate Change
by E. James Dixon

JANUARY 14

Paleogenomics, Community Engagement, and Evolutionary Histories of Indigenous peoples of Southeast Alaska and North Coast of British Columbia by Ripan S. Malhi

JANUARY 19

Evolution of Northwest Coast Art
by Steve Brown

JANUARY 26

Alpine Cairns and Social and Environmental Change in Southeast Alaska by Tom Thornton

JANUARY 28

Overview of the Dene Languages and the Place of Tlingit in Na-Dene by Jeff Leer

FEBRUARY 2

Tlingit and the Dene-Yeniseian Hypothesis
by Edward Vajda

FEBRUARY 4

The Tsimshianic Language Family, its Ancestry, and Distant Relatives by Marie-Lucie Tarpent

FEBRUARY 9

The Haida Language: Origins, External Relationships, and Language Contact Through the Lenses of Linguistics, Other Sciences, and Oral Histories by Marianne Ignace

FEBRUARY 11

Interactions and Relations among Haida, Tlingit, and Tsimshian Societies by Steve J. Langdon

All lectures will be livestreamed to our YouTube channel at 12 pm AKST.
youtube.com/c/sealaskaheritageinstitute

The series is also offered as a one-credit course through the University of Alaska Southeast. Contact mpjackson2@alaska.edu for more information.